

AI Study Assistant - MCQ Report

Q1. What was the primary goal of evaluating Subspace.money from a first-time user's perspective?

- A) To identify opportunities to improve user activation, conversion, retention, and overall product clarity.
- B) To compare its features directly against its top three competitors.
- C) To audit the platform's security and data privacy measures.
- D) To redesign the entire user interface for a modern look.

Correct Answer: A

Q2. Which of the following was identified as a key weakness of Subspace.money in the SWOT analysis?

- A) Wide catalog of subscriptions and gift cards.
- B) Shared subscription model reduces user costs.
- C) Wallet-based payments introduce additional friction.
- D) Strong marketplace approach with multiple categories.

Correct Answer: C

Q3. According to Feedback 1, what was the main problem for a first-time user landing on the Subspace.money Explore page?

- A) The chat functionality was too distracting.
- B) The gift card options were too limited.
- C) It was difficult to understand what Subspace primarily does due to unclear product positioning.
- D) The authentication flow required too many steps.

Correct Answer: C

Q4. What was the observed user journey for purchasing a gift card that highlighted friction, according to Feedback 2?

- A) Cart → Payment Gateway → Purchase Complete
- B) Cart → Wallet Funding → Wallet Balance → Purchase
- C) Cart → Discount Application → Purchase Complete
- D) Cart → Profile Verification → Purchase

Correct Answer: B

Q5. What was recommended to "Ship Instead" to reduce friction in the checkout flow regarding wallet payments?

- A) Make wallet funding mandatory for all transactions.
- B) Remove the wallet feature entirely from the platform.
- C) Offer direct payment options like UPI, Cards, and Net Banking.
- D) Increase the minimum top-up amount for the wallet.

Correct Answer: C

Q6. Feedback 3 noted that as a new user, it was difficult to immediately understand what about the chat functionality?

- A) Its integration with third-party social media platforms.
- B) How it supports subscriptions and what value it provides.
- C) The number of active group chats available on the platform.
- D) The process for blocking unwanted users in chat.

Correct Answer: B

Q7. How did the document suggest improving "Empty States" on the Subspace.money platform?

- A) By removing them completely to avoid displaying "nothing exists yet."
- B) By converting them into educational moments with suggested actions.
- C) By displaying advertisements relevant to the user's interests.
- D) By offering a quick link to contact customer support.

Correct Answer: B

Q8. What was proposed to motivate users to complete their profiles on Subspace.money?

- A) Make profile completion mandatory before accessing any features.
- B) Introduce a profile completion system showing progress and benefits/incentives.
- C) Automatically fill in profile details based on user activity.
- D) Charge a fee for incomplete profiles after a certain period.

Correct Answer: C

Q9. According to the competitor analysis, what "Strength" does Rocket Money have that presents an "Opportunity" for Subspace.money?

- A) Clear value proposition focused on expense sharing.
- B) Strong subscription visibility and management.
- C) Seamless checkout experience.
- D) A wide network of integrated banks.

Correct Answer: B

Q10. Based on the conclusion, which of the following was identified as one of the highest-impact improvements for Subspace.money?

- A) Adding more new features to expand its marketplace offerings.
- B) Increasing the number of global payment gateway integrations.
- C) Clarifying the product value proposition and simplifying checkout.
- D) Investing heavily in influencer marketing campaigns.

Correct Answer: C